Shanghai Flaneur

Walks & Talks, Excursions, Study Tours, Field Trips. To get to the heart of a city, you need a good pair of shoes. Charles Baudelaire used the term flaneur to describe someone who walks through the city to experience it. And nothing beats being shown around by those who have been walking the streets themselves for a while.

With varying backgrounds, history, business, architecture, town planning, art, photography, China studies, Shanghai Flaneur represents something like a walking think-tank on the city. We offer Corporate tours, educational excursions, and public walks for the expat community.
