香港認知障礙症協會
Hong Kong Alzheimer's Disease Association

Hong Kong Alzheimer's Disease Association (HKADA) – Caring for Dementia

Guest Speaker: Ms Maggie LEE Nga Yee - Executive Director HKADA

HKADA established in 1995, is the first local organization specialized in providing services to people with dementia and being member of Alzheimer's Disease International (ADI). It is running on a fully self-financed, non-profit making basis, without Government subvention.

HKADA aims to provide professional and multi-therapeutic activities/ services to people with dementia and their care givers. It also provides different levels of training and education to professionals, care givers and the public, to enhance their knowledge and skills as to achieve the effects of "Early Detection, Early Treatment, Early Planning". Services include Day Centres, In-home Service, Caregiver support, Education and Promotion, Research, etc. For further Details, please visit <http://www.hkada.org.hk>

Join us for a gourmet Christmas lunch to support HKADA. There will be a raffle tickets sale (200 HKD per ticket, one ticket per person) with fabulous prizes and a live auction of two Swiss watches, one pendant and 6 bottles of Champagne.

All proceeds from the raffle tickets sale and auction will go to Hong Kong Alzheimer's Disease Association. Thank you!
